RUFUS HATCH'S SCHEME.

His Plan to Organize an Independent Co-Operative Telegraph System with the

New York, July 27,-In a published letter this morning Rufus Hatch advocates the formation of a co-operative telegraph company by telegraphers throughout the United States and Canada, He claims that with $10,009,ooo the telegraphers could duplicate the service of the Western Union company. He assures them that each man or woman in the business could subscribe $100 at least, and thus raise the amount required. He is confident the money could be raised in ten days from the time of opening subscription lists, and that in six months the new lines could be in operation. He assures the telegraphers of the support of the public generally, who now sympathize with them in their demands upon the
